APPLICATION FORM

Please save this document before completing it, to use the e-signature function.

About this application form

This is an application form for a Just For You Lifetime Mortgage.

Just is a trading name of Just Retirement Money Limited. Where you see 'Just', 'we' or 'us' in this document it means Just Retirement Money Limited.

To avoid delays in processing, please make sure all relevant sections of this form are completed in block capitals, in black ink. It's important this form is fully complete, as accurate as possible and that all necessary attachments are included with it.

If you run out of space, or need to provide additional information, please use section 14 'Additional information'.

There's a checklist inside this cover that'll help make sure you submit everything needed to support this application.

Please note, if the application doesn't proceed to offer within three months of us receiving this signed and completed application form, you'll have to get a new quote.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Application checklist (for use by financial adviser)

We're committed to processing your application as quickly and smoothly as possible. This checklist will help make sure we've got all the information we need to do this.

15. DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY POLICY

Who are we?

Just Retirement Money Limited is part of the Just group of companies* and is registered under the data protection laws of the United Kingdom. We take all reasonable care to prevent any unauthorised access to your personal data.

We respect the privacy of every individual and have developed this policy because we want you to feel confident about the privacy and security of your personal information.

What is personal information?

Personal information means any information about you which is personally identifiable. This includes your name, age, gender, address, telephone number and email address. It also includes your financial details, relevant employment history, your marital status and details of any dependant such as a spouse/partner (for example their name, date of birth and gender) where relevant and any other information from which you can be identified.

What types of personal information do we collect from you?

We may collect any of the following information about you, your dependants and beneficiaries where relevant (this includes someone you appoint under a power of attorney) when you use our services, or we may collect it indirectly from our business partners, such as financial intermediaries:

Personal data: your name, date of birth, telephone number, address, email address, dependants, marital status.

Sensitive/special categories of personal data: gender and other sensitive information such as information about your physical and mental health.

Financial information: information that may relate to your financial circumstances (for example your pension values, income and existing investments), bank account details and details of product options you may consider.

*Just group of Companies comprises: Just Retirement Limited, Just Retirement Money Limited, HUB Financial Solutions Limited, Just Retirement Management Services Limited, Just Re 1 Limited, Partnership Home Loans Limited, Paying for Care Limited, Partnership Services Limited, Partnership Life Assurance Company Limited and Partnership Group Holdings Limited.

How we process your personal information

The personal information we collect may be used in any of the following ways:

Personal data (including, where relevant, any medical data and your dependant's or beneficiaries' personal and medical data): this information helps us in our legitimate interests (where those interests are not overridden by your interests and rights) and, in the case of any special categories of personal data (for example health or medical data) with your express consent:

- a) for the administration and continuing review of your lifetime mortgage
- b) to medically underwrite your lifetime mortgage where relevant
- c) to help our understanding of mortality
- d) to share with our third party reinsurer (an insurance company that shares part of the life expectancy risk) for the purposes of evaluating and allocating risk
- e) to share with financiers of your lifetime mortgage, or investors to whom we may sell our interest in your lifetime mortgage, in order to obtain their funding and investments and manage our relationships with them
- f) to help us calculate our reserves accurately allowing for your specific health profile
- g) to provide you with information about the products you've purchased
- h) to perform credit checks and verify your identity
- i) to comply with legal and regulatory obligations
- j) for business and analysis purposes, including for product development and pricing and for protecting your data through secure storage and backups and research
- k) to notify you of important changes or updates to our services
- l) to maintain a record of your communications with us and for training and service improvement services

m) for the prevention and detection of fraud

n) to invite you to take part in customer and specialist market research

o) for general administrative purposes, and

p) for the purposes of automated decision making.

Financial information: where relevant, this information is necessary for the performance of our contract with you and facilitates the provision of our services.

Consent

The Just group of companies provide an extensive range of different products and services. We may be required to obtain your consent in order to:

- send you marketing literature covering our range of products and services
- obtain your marketing preferences to communicate through email, telephone or SMS, and
- use your personal data for automated decision-making, including profiling for research and marketing purposes as well as actuarial and statistical analysis.

We'll seek to obtain your explicit consent where we are required to process any special categories of your personal data.

If we need to process your personal data for new purposes requiring your consent, we'll contact you to obtain it.

Who we may share your personal information with

The personal information we hold about you may be shared with the following recipients subject to security, contractual and transfer adequacy safeguards as appropriate:

- a) our group affiliate including Just Retirement Limited, Just Re 1 Limited and Partnership Life Assurance Company Limited
- b) third party funders
- c) our agents, and
- d) business partners/service providers who assist us in providing the services we offer through our website applications and third party comparison portal(s).

The following categories of agents, business partners and close affiliations assist us in the provision of supporting services and only use your personal information to the extent necessary to perform their functions:

- Providers for pricing/underwriting purposes: these providers may share your personal information with their group companies for the same purpose.
- Service providers: for the provision of support services such as reinsurance, product administration, receiving and sending marketing communications, data analysis and validation, IT support services, archiving, auditing, business administration and other support services and tasks, from time to time.
- Business partners who may have referred you to us: to provide them with relevant management information.
- Other companies, in the event we undergo a reorganisation or are sold to a third party.
- Regulators and public authorities who have a legal right to request and process your personal information.
- Other companies in the Just group, where relevant, for management information purposes, and:
 - a) for underwriting purposes in respect of Partnership Life Assurance Company Limited, and
 - b) financing purposes in respect of Just Retirement Limited and Just Re 1 Limited.

A list of the companies in the Just group of companies can be found earlier in this section*

In addition, we might disclose your personal information if we are legally entitled or required to do so. This could be when required by law or by a court order, or if we believe that such action is necessary to prevent fraud or protect the rights, property or personal safety of any person.

15. DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY POLICY (CONTINUED)

Data retention and anonymisation

Where we've provided you with a service, we'll keep your personal information for as long as is necessary for the purposes described in this policy (in line with the data minimisation principle).

After this, your personal information will be deleted from our systems, or anonymised in compliance with our established data protection policy.

Anonymised personal information will not be considered as personal since no individual can be identified by that information. We use anonymised information for further actuarial and business analysis, business research and reporting to help us to develop our products and services.

Monitoring our communications with you

We may monitor or record your calls and text messages and other communications, such as emails, in accordance with UK law, and in particular for business purposes such as:

- a) quality control and training
- b) processing necessary for the entering into or the performance of a contract
- c) to prevent unauthorised use of our telecommunications systems and web sites and/or services
- d) to ensure effective systems operation
- e) to meet our legal obligations
- f) in your vital interests
- g) to prevent or detect crime, and
- h) in relation to our legitimate interests.

Transmission and security of your personal information

We have security measures in place to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of personal information under our control as required by UK current data protection laws.

For example, our security and privacy policies are periodically reviewed and enhanced as necessary and only authorised personnel have access to personal information. Whilst we cannot ensure or guarantee that loss, misuse or alteration of information will never occur, we use all reasonable efforts to prevent it.

Transfers of personal data outside of the UK and EEA

We may be required to transfer your personal information to product providers and/or third parties, who may then transfer it to countries outside the UK and European Economic Area (EEA). The laws and rules that those countries have to protect personal information may not be equivalent to UK data protection laws. For example, we transfer the information provided to product providers who may process your personal information outside of the UK and EEA for general administrative purposes, including the storage and backup of data and in order to provide you with a quote. Therefore, we may need to rely on a recognised legal adequacy or safeguarding mechanism, to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with our privacy policy. If your information is transferred outside of the UK or EEA, we'll ensure that your data remains properly protected. These companies are required to process personal information about you in accordance with the current data protection laws and any successor legislation.

Notification of changes to our privacy policy

We reserve the right to amend or modify the privacy policy at any time and in response to any changes in applicable data protection and privacy legislation.

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we may place notices on pages of our website so that you are aware of the information we collect and how we use it at all times.

If at any point we decide to use or disclose information we've collected in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we'll notify you.

Your rights to your personal information

You have options and choices regarding how we use your personal information. We may provide you with the tools to manage your account or to change your marketing communication preferences at any time. We might keep a record of any objection you make to the processing of your personal information, including any objection made to receiving marketing communications. We would do this for the sole purpose of ensuring that we can continue to respect your wishes, and not contact you further during the term of your objection.

In terms of your rights, you can:

- request to see the personal information we hold on you
- request your data be corrected or erased where appropriate
- restrict/object to the processing of your personal data while we investigate your concern
- request to receive your personal data in a commonly used electronic format or send the data in that format to another provider (this applies in certain circumstances, where your request relates to data you've provided to us and where it's technically possible), and
- withdraw your consent to certain processing activities at any time, for example, to object to direct marketing or profiling for market research and marketing purposes.

Requests for your personal information shall be provided free of charge. However, where requests are repetitive, or manifestly unfounded or excessive, we may charge you a reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of providing the information, or may refuse to act on the request.

If you have any questions or comments about this privacy policy or our practices, or if you wish to make a request or exercise any of your rights, you can write to us at the below address.

16. YOUR HEALTH AND LIFESTYLE

Only complete this section if you want us to take your health and lifestyle conditions into account. This could affect the maximum amount you can borrow, or result in an offer of a lower interest rate compared to our standard option.

Please be as honest and open as possible in disclosing your health and lifestyle factors. The more we know about you, the more likely it is that we'll be able to offer you enhanced terms based on your individual circumstances.

We rely on the information you've given us in this form to calculate the maximum amount and the interest rate that we can offer you. If the information you've given us is found to be inaccurate, we could cancel the lifetime mortgage/reject your application or adjust the amount of the advance or interest rate agreed.

In certain circumstances, we may need to ask your doctor for a General Practitioner's Report (GPR). We need your consent to do this. By signing the declaration at the end of this form you are giving us your consent.

Under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988, you have certain rights.

These include:

- the right to see the GPR before it's sent or during the six months after that, by writing to your GP
- the right to stop your doctor sending a GPR to us, and
- the right to ask your doctor to change any parts of the GPR you think are inaccurate or misleading (if your doctor doesn't agree with the changes, you can add your own comments to the GPR).

If you don't give your consent, your health and lifestyle conditions won't be taken into account when we calculate the maximum amount you can borrow or the interest rate we can offer you.

17. YOUR MEDICAL DECLARATION

Only complete this section if you want us to take into account your health and lifestyle conditions, which could impact the maximum amount you can borrow, or result in an offer of a lower interest rate compared to our standard option.

We may verify the medical information you provided in section 16 with your GP. By signing this declaration, you're giving us consent to get a medical report from your GP.

18. YOUR DECLARATION AND AUTHORISATION

Please note that when this declaration is completed by two applicants, 'I' shall be taken to mean 'we', 'my' shall be taken to mean 'our', and 'me' shall be taken to mean 'us'.

I declare that the information given in this application form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief, whether it is completed in my handwriting or not, and that I have disclosed all material facts. A material fact is one which a prudent lender would regard as likely to influence the assessment and acceptance of your application. If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, it should be disclosed.

I understand that Just rely on the information provided by me in this application form to calculate the amount of the lump sum cash advance that Just can offer me. I understand that if the information provided on my medical and lifestyle conditions is found to be inaccurate, then Just may be entitled to cancel the Just Lifetime Mortgage, reject my application, or adjust the amount of the lump sum cash advance agreed.

I hereby apply to Just for the Lifetime Mortgage indicated in section 10 of this application form. I confirm that I have received and read the Key Facts Illustration.

I confirm that my property is as stated above and understand that if the valuation does not confirm this for any reason my application may be rejected. I understand that if I fail to disclose a material fact, this may result in my Just Lifetime Mortgage becoming void. I instruct Just to proceed with the legal aspects through my solicitor. I authorise you or your representatives to inspect my title to the property detailed in this application at HM Land Registry.

I understand that I'm not contractually bound until all the necessary documents have been approved and executed. I give permission for Just or an agent acting on their behalf to request redemption statements on any outstanding mortgage, request title deeds, and pay off any outstanding mortgage from the lump sum cash advance.

I understand that I may be required to repay all or some of the legal charge if I move to another property of lower value. I understand that if someone else takes up permanent residency in the property, I may be required to repay all or part of the legal charge.

I understand that Just may make searches at credit reference agencies, who will supply credit information as well as information from the electoral register. The agencies will record details of the search whether or not the application proceeds. Just may use credit-sourcing methods to assess this application and to verify my identity.

I authorise Just to pay commission to my financial adviser as outlined in the Key Facts Illustration or personal quotation accepted as detailed in this application form.

If any aspect of this application form is unclear or additional information is required, or my agreement to any change to this application is required, I authorise Just to seek authorisation on my behalf direct from my financial adviser. I consent to my financial adviser providing the required signed authority in their own handwriting direct to Just on my behalf for my application to be completed. I understand that once the contract is concluded it cannot be changed.

A copy of the Just lifetime mortgage terms and conditions, and your completed application form, are available on request.

Please note that this application form is only valid for six months from the date of signature. If the Just lifetime mortgage hasn't completed in this time, you'll be asked to complete this form again.

19. ADVISER'S DECLARATION

This section is to be completed by the financial adviser. Just only accept business from financial advisers who hold a suitable lifetime mortgage qualification.

Name of adviser / supervisor

Name of firm / network

Financial services register number

Are you also submitting this application as a member of a mortgage club?

I confirm that:

I've passed an appropriate approved examining board's specialist examination in equity release, and that I've provided the equity release advice and recommendation (if you have only supervised in the advice and recommendation please note in section 14).

I've provided advice on this lifetime mortgage in accordance with Mortgage Conduct of Business (MCOB) rules.

To the best of my knowledge, this application meets Just's current lending criteria and acceptable property guide.

I've submitted this application under Just's Terms of Business.

The Terms of Business can be found at justadviser.com/tob and will be periodically updated and amended. Accordingly, you should satisfy yourself of the terms because they contain important information about how we make payments, together with our respective rights, obligations, and assumptions of responsibility. By submitting this application to Just you agree that these terms will apply (unless a separate written agreement has been entered into in respect of the introduction of Lifetime Mortgage business).

I confirm that I have the correct authority to consent to Just processing the personal data of the customer(s).

I've submitted this application on behalf of the applicant(s) named in section 1 of this application form. I confirm they're fully aware of the content of, and have authorised me to confirm their agreement to, the declarations and authorisations in Section 18.

By checking this box, I agree that I have fully read and understood the terms of this declaration and that all of the statements contained within the declaration are true.

Explanatory notes

1. A separate confirmation must be completed for each customer (for example, joint holders, trustee cases and joint life cases). Where a third party is involved – for example, a payer of contributions who is different from the customer – the identity of that person must also be verified, and a confirmation provided.
2. This form cannot be used to verify the identity of any customer that falls into one of the following categories:
 - those who are exempt from verification as being an existing client of the introducing firm prior to the introduction of the requirement for such verification
 - those who have been subject to Simplified Due Diligence under the Money Laundering Regulations, or
 - those whose identity has been verified using the source of funds as evidence.

OUR SERVICE – WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

We aim to progress your client's application as quickly and smoothly as possible.

The key stages of the process and typical timescales – from application to completion – are outlined below.

If the Medically Underwritten option is chosen and a General Practitioners Report (GPR) is required, this will increase the number of days from application to offer.

Stages of the equity release process	Following receipt of application form	Offer issued	Completed legal documents returned
Working days	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34
Acknowledge application and instruct valuation	2 days
Valuation carried out and approved	7 days
Estimated time for applicant's solicitor to provide Early Repayment Charge advice and obtain client's signature on legal documents		15 days

Funds issued after receipt of legal documents

For registered properties ¹			3 days
For encumbered ² and/or unregistered properties ³			10 days ⁴

For a registered property¹ the total number of working days to release funds (including allocation of 15 days for client's own solicitor) is approximately 27 days (12 days spent by Just plus 15 by client's own solicitor).

For an encumbered² and/or unregistered property³ the total number of working days to release funds (including allocation of 15 days for client's own solicitor) is approximately 34 days (19 days spent by Just plus 15 by client's own solicitor).

¹ If property is registered, the title to the property is registered at the Land Registry and is guaranteed by the State.

² Encumbered – there is an outstanding mortgage or loan, or legal charge on the property.

³ If property is unregistered, ownership is not guaranteed by the State. The title can only be proved by a copy of the title deeds and your title insurer will check back the property's documentation over at least 15 years to certify it.

⁴ For encumbered properties this timescale is dependent on provision of a redemption statement and can be reduced if advance notice of client's completion of legal documents is provided. For unregistered properties this timescale can be significantly reduced if title deeds are received early in the process.

NEXT STEPS

We like to keep things simple. One of the things we pride ourselves on is offering you an easy and transparent application process. This document explains this process, as well as some simple things you can do to help speed up your client's application.

Our application process		What you can do to help
Step 1: Application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> When we receive the application, we'll review it and contact you if we have any queries.
Step 2: Valuation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Our panel of valuers will contact your client to arrange an appointment to view the property. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Please make sure your client will be available, so the valuer can gain access quickly.
Step 3: Title search	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To speed up the application, we use a third party company. This means your client's solicitor doesn't need to carry out any searches. This third party company will conduct a Land Registry search to check that the property is registered and that the title matches the application.
Step 4: Unregistered properties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If the search shows that the property isn't registered, our conveyancers will ask your client's solicitor for the full title deeds. The application may not be able to proceed until the deeds have been checked. However, an offer will be issued, subject to the title deed being acceptable. If the search shows that the title isn't in the same name(s) as the application, we'll ask you to arrange a transfer of the title. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can pre-warn your client that our conveyancers may ask them to provide authorisation to obtain the title deeds, to clarify their whereabouts or to provide other information on the deeds.
Step 5: Offer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once the application is accepted, we'll send an offer letter to you and your client. Your client's solicitor will also get written confirmation of the offer, together with the relevant legal documents. This letter will set out details of anything else we need before completion. Note – If the property is unregistered and the title deeds haven't been reviewed and confirmed as acceptable, we'll issue an offer subject to receiving acceptable title deeds. If the title deeds prove unacceptable, we'll revoke the offer. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your client will need to make an appointment to sign the necessary legal documents. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ask your client to make an appointment with their solicitor as soon as possible after the offer's been issued, to sign the legal documents and provide any information required. It may help us complete the transaction more quickly if you let us know when the legal documents will be signed.
Step 6: Completion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once your client's solicitor has returned the completed paperwork, our conveyancers will carry out a final check. If there's an existing mortgage, we'll need a redemption statement. Once we have all the information we need, we'll send the money to your client's solicitor by Bacs, minus any balance required to clear any existing charges. If your client is making monthly payments to serve interest, the direct debit will be set up to take the payment on the agreed payment date of either 1st or 15th of each month following completion. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you're aware that the solicitor is sending the documents and you can let us know in advance, we can request the statement earlier to reduce any delays. Unfortunately, we can't request the statement prior to receiving this confirmation.
